

IACP Organizational Members

The IACP is please to introduce a new category of membership. We sincerely hope that your organization will take us up on our free offer (typically the organizational membership is $400 per year) to join IACP as a member in 2014.

IACP's mission is to create a truly global network of CBT professionals and to represent the interests of CBT communities throughout the world. By joining, your organization will get visibility, access to our global network of CBT professionals, and more (see list below for additional benefits). Additionally, the president of the organization will automatically receive all the benefits of our individual membership category, and your other organizational members will be able to join IACP as individual members for a discounted rate ($65 instead of $75).

Benefits of individual membership including the 10% ICCP registration discount in 2014 in Hong Kong, free online access to our peer-reviewed journal, the International Journal of Cognitive Therapy (IJCT), free issues of our newsletter, access to training opportunities through our speakers' bureau such as our monthly video newsletter (CI) and more.
